GOVEENMENT TROOPS VICTORIOUS ! (Bulletin Exclusive to the STANDARD.)

James Bay, 23rd March, 1871. After three days hard fighting the govern ment troops came out victorious. The Musgrave Guards to-day advanced in serried ranks, and at "the slow march." The Na. tionals opened out in skirmishing order to receive the attack, the Franc-tireurs delivering a withering fire on the advancing grenadiers. Just as the head of the column reached the summit of Indecency's Mount the Nationals brought up the Humphrey mitrail-leuse which delivered such an unceasing and crushing fire that the ground was literally torn up from under their feet; still the guards held their ground and claim the victory.

They may well say "many such victories will see us annihilated."

will see us annihilated."

The engagements will be known as the battle of Shame. Among the easualties we regret to record the death of Field Marshal Flip-o while gallantly heading the "forlorn-hope." He fell shot through the heart. He leaves to his country the Government Civil List Bill to commemorate his loss. Two staff officers, Carrall and Helmcken fell danger-ously, it is feared mortally wounded, while defending an untenable position.

THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

The Minutes of last meeting were read and OUESTION OF PRIVILEGE.

Mr. Bunster rose to a question of privilege, and asked the Speaker way it was that the seamer. Sir James Douglas did not make the tree works to Comox, according to a on which passed the House some time

The Speaker said that the Governor had the especial before him, and there was no beaut but it would receive his careful con-CATIL LIST BILL.

The House resolved itself into Committee of the Whole-Mr. Alston in the chair. Clause 1-There shall be payable, in every year, to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Succes-1905, out of the General Revenue of this tolast, a sum not exceeding seventy-seven and twenty-five cents, for defraying the ex-

Hon. Attorney General moved that $78,-16 25 be inserted instead of $77,241 25. Mr. Humphreys moved an amendment that he sam of $9,500 be inserted instead of $17,241 25. In moving the amendment, the borgentleman said that he was still opposed of Victoria, and to authorize the collection a such an oppressive measure; he thought it was the intention of the Government to green according to the well understood wishes of the people,—but have the hon members around the table been disposed to govern according to the well understood wishes of me people, two thirds of the elective members having placed their protest against the measure. Her Britannic Mujesty will never give her assent to such an infamous measure. Nothing could be more insulting to the people of the Colony than to see two representafire members with the Government members carring such an infamous measure, which takes the revenue of the Colory away from the people. He denied that the Government stood in a better position with the people now than it ever did. The Governor tells the people that he has received valuable assistance from the two representative members of the Legislative Council; but what have ther insugarated since they have been in the Nothing. The Government have never endeavored to govern according to the ell understood wishes of the people. We 1863. have been told that the officials have not been voting their own salaries-they have been roting for their successors in officebut it is a notorious fact that they have. It is not proper that this Colony should be sadded with a lot of officials who have accumu ated a large amount of wealth in the place He did not blame all the Executive officers; he blamed the two hon. elective members sho sat in the Executive Council, for such a asure. We have been cheated into the bethat this Bid was necessary, in order to us the people's representatives who would ein office. It is the people's money that we are legislating on, and it is the people's interest we should look to. Fancy a private usiness firm in this city, with the clerks oting their own salary and telling their en - Samp Act, 1862 places how long they should work. The fees to ruin any country; hon, gentlemen they gave their assent to such a Bill. The Executive others have never repe ented public opinion, nor have they ever at impled to represent it; but they will never the people. He wished to place on record his disapprobation of the Bilt, and he was is by no mends creditable to the Government to bring down such a Bill at the last minute; it would have been much better if it had Hon. Dr. Helmcken said that the hon who had just sat down had attered a most pernicious speech, and he thought it was a direct insult to every official member in the House, but be did not think worth while to reply to it. He had stated that the Government stood better to-day than it ever did before, and he would reiterate it. The dsy would come when the people of
